Press Release – Missing Person Located near Fox Lake

At 11:45pm on Saturday, January 17, 2015 the Dodge County Sheriff's Office responded to The Boat House N10575 Chief Kuno Trail in the Town of Fox Lake for a report of a 33 year old male from Milwaukee who had left The Boat House on foot walking out onto Fox Lake. Concerned friends reported him to be highly intoxicated and likely trying to get back to his cabin on the north side of the lake. A search began and lasted through the night which included the use of thermal imaging and ATVs to search the vast area.

At 7:45am on Sunday, January 18, 2015 sheriff's deputies located the subject walking near Hayes Resort on Blackhawk Trail. The subject admitted taking refuge overnight in an unlocked vehicle due to the cold temperatures. He was in good health and he required no medical treatment.

Dodge County Sheriff's Deputies were assisted by the Fox Lake Police and Fire Departments.

Additional information can be obtained by contacting Sheriff Dale J Schmidt.
